

HISTORY CONCENTRATION FORM

Name _____ Phone _____ E-mail _____

Advisor _____ Phone _____ E-mail _____

Only six credit hours may be transferred from another institution.

Required History/Geography Courses * (3 credits each)	Sem. Offered	Completed Sem./Year
GEOG 520 Geography for Teachers Emphasis on problems and techniques in teaching geography and current developments in research, methodology, and philosophy in the discipline.
HIST 601 Themes in U.S. History I Survey of U.S. history prior to 1877. Designed for individuals who need to strengthen their preparation in this area or who seek to enhance their knowledge of the latest interpretations in the field.
HIST 602 Themes in U.S. History II Survey of U.S. history from 1877 to the present. Designed for individuals who need to strengthen their preparation in this area or who seek to enhance their knowledge of the latest interpretations in the field.
HIST 695 World History, Special Topics This course will focus on one area within world history. Topics will vary, but may include classical Greece and Rome, Near East and Islam, China and East Asia, South Asia, or Latin America.
HIST 605 Themes in European History I Survey of European history from 1500 to 1815. Designed for individuals who need to strengthen their preparation in the area or who seek to enhance their knowledge of the latest interpretations in the field.
HIST 510 Approaches to Modern World History Introduction to the historical study of world history beyond Europe and the United States. Students read major theoretical works as well as case studies of particular regions.

*Approved substitutions may be made.

Contact the Department of History and Art History
 Dr. Kelly Schrum, Director for History Outreach Programs
 Assistant Director, Center for History and New Media
 703-993-4521 kschrums@gmu.edu.