

IET- Master of Arts in New Professional Studies – Teaching

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

George Mason University's general graduate admissions requirements:

- Submit an online application to the College of Education and Human Development.
- Pay a nonrefundable $60.00 application fee.
- Submit the Application for Virginia In-State Tuition Rates, if claiming entitlement to Virginia in-state tuition rates.
- Submit an individual goal statement (750-1000 words required).
- Hold a Bachelor's degree from an accredited university with a GPA of 3.0 or better in the last 60 hours of undergraduate study (or admittance will be provisional). Submit two original transcripts from each institution you attended.
- Submit three letters of recommendation: two from colleagues and one from your principal.
- Be recommended for acceptance by the Initiatives in Educational Transformation Program.

Additional Initiatives in Educational Transformation (IET) Program requirements:

- Currently work in a classroom setting, and be certified as a teacher or have several years of successful experience as a teacher/trainer or educational administrator.
- Form a team with teachers from your school (or nearby school). Teams should include no fewer than two members and no more than six members. If you aren't able to find teammates, we can help you.
- Submit an IET Department Form with team information found on our website under Prospective Students - Admissions Requirements or directly at <http://gse.gmu.edu/iet/form/>. Acknowledge IET's computer technology requirements: Unrestricted internet access, email capability, MS Office proficient (Word, MS PowerPoint etc.)

Note: GREs are not required for admission to the Master of Arts in New Professional Studies - Teaching.