Course Policies & Expectations

Attendance.

Absences

Understanding you are individuals with full and active lives, who have made the intellectual and financial commitment to regularly attend class, there may be an instance when you are not able to attend. If this unlikely event should occur, it is your responsibility to make arrangements to obtain notes, handouts, and lecture details from another student. Please notify the instructor about absences in advance or within 24 hours after an absence. Be aware any points earned for participation in class activities during a time of absence will not be earned and cannot be made up.

Assignments, Readings and Due Dates:

For a satisfactory grade in the course, students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, be prepared for class, demonstrate professional behavior (see Professional Disposition Criteria at <http://www.gse.gmu.edu> for a listing of these dispositions), and complete all assignments with professional quality in a timely manner. To successfully complete this course, students need to adhere to the due dates for specific readings and assignments to be completed.

Late Work.

Late assignments will not be accepted by the instructor. If an emergency occurs please notify the instructor in advance.

TaskStream Submission

Every student registered for any Special Education course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, Legal Dilemma to TaskStream (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a onetime course or part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete(IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

Grading Scale

A+	100%
A	95 – 99%
A -	90 – 94%
B+	86-89%
B	83-85 %
B -	80-82%
C	75-79%
F	74% or below

Assignments*NCATE/TaskStream Assignments.

Legal Dilemma Project

Common Assignments.

Participation as required in class and on Blackboard	20 points
Midterm Exam	20 points
Legal Updates Paper and Presentation	30 points
Legal Dilemma Project (Taskstream Submission)	30 points
	100 points

Participation — 20%: Students are expected to attend class and actively participate in all assignments, group activities, and class discussions. Active participation includes: asking questions, sharing insights gained from the readings and lectures, engaging in interactive discussion, and participating in activities with classmates. Active participation also includes listening and respectful consideration of the comments of others. This will require all students to complete the required readings, activities, and assignments for that specific class meeting.

Midterm Exam – 20%: An open-book midterm exam submitted through Blackboard summarizing information from the first four classes.

Legal Updates Paper and Presentation — 30%: Students are expected to identify an issue or topic of interest and complete a 5 page report in which they analyze court cases – may include 1 historic or landmark case but also must include current cases. The issue or topic must be directly related to special populations. This paper should include in an overview of the issue, legal context, legal & ethical critique of the cases, a synthesis of impact on practice, and suggestions for future implementation strategies. The 5 page report must include a reference page with all case citations related to the concepts discussed in the paper. A summary of the report will be shared with all colleagues during an in-class presentation. Students will have approximately 25 minutes for an in-class presentation to summarize the key ideas and strategies emerging from their legal updates paper, the presentation should include time for questions, discussion, and interaction with colleagues.

Legal Dilemma Project — 30%: Students are to complete an 8-10 page paper regarding a legal dilemma surrounding the education of learners from special populations. The dilemma must be a real situation of legal significance for special populations. Students are to interview a school superintendent, principal, or other school official in a position of administrative responsibility who has experienced a situation with actual or potential, but not trivial, legal consequences and write a report and analysis of that situation. This is a confidential activity, meaning that no personal identities are to be revealed, although fictitious names can be used. The paper should include background information on the situation; clear connections to the law(s), such as case law, statutes, state regulations; actual outcomes/consequences; and suggestions for successful resolution. This project is a required TaskStream submission.

Expectations for Written Work

Use appropriate grammar. Spell correctly.

Writing should be the caliber of a graduate student. Type all work.

Use Times Roman or Arial 12-font. Write clearly.

Include a cover page with name, date & assignment.

Follow APA guidelines (double space, references, etc.). Avoid plagiarism!!!!

Grade Appeals: Candidates must present grade appeals in writing and must put forth a reasonable written explanation that supports their request for a grade change.

Other Assignments.

All additional Blackboard assignments and readings will count towards class participation grade
